

Your Opportunity to Buy Writing Paper

Pound papers are always the more economical in buying stationery—and because we give you sixteen ounces of writing paper—about 90 sheets—in each pound, ours is the more economical to buy.

Lord Baltimore Writing Paper

Is a grade for which you may ordinarily pay as much as 35c. But is a paper we specially feature at 25c per pound. Deep tone ply envelopes to match, 50 in a carton, cost you 25c.

An Exceptional Value

During this month we are making a special feature of this stationery, offering one pound of the paper and fifty of the envelopes, a combination for which we ordinarily ask 50c.

The Two—Special for 39c.

Don't wait until you need writing paper—buy it while you can get it at this price.

"HER MOTHER'S SECRET"

William Fox production with Ralph Kelland and Dorothy Green. In this masterpiece of photodramatic art, Ralph Kelland, "Adonis of the silent stage," appears first as Seth Cartwright, Sr., and later as his own son, Seth Cartwright, Jr. Cartwright, Sr., and his law partner, Schwab, love Bernice Archer. Cartwright is married and has a son. He becomes involved with Bernice and a daughter is born to them. Bernice is cast off. The baby is adopted by Mrs. Cartwright. Upon the death of Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright the baby is miraculously restored to its mother, who regains her reason. After a lapse of many years, young Cartwright, who has been to college, returns. Disillusion has ruined his health and his doctor sends him to the seashore, where he meets Bernice and her daughter, Lorna (Dorothy Green). Ignorant of his relationship to Lorna, he falls violently in love with her. During the course of the courtship they are marooned over night on an island. Upon their return to the mainland in the morning Lorna is rigorously questioned by her mother. Cartwright openly declares his love. He wires his guardian, Schwab, to come and meet his intended wife. Schwab arrives, recognizes Bernice, turns to Cartwright, and then pointing to Lorna, says: "You cannot marry her; she is your sister."

"Her Mother's Secret" is a powerful and most humane drama that has ever been emerged from the Fox studios.

THURSDAY—Marguerite Clark in "The Prince and the Pauper." A Paramount feature. Marguerite Clark as the dual-title character in an elaborate and impressive picturization of Mark Twain's master-work. In five delightful parts.

VAUDEVILLE

"The Great Gilbert Hypnotist." Don't fail to see this great feature. Beautiful spectacular novelty. Special scenery and electrical effects.

"THE GREAT SMASH"

Three reel L-Ko comedy with Dick Smith, as John D. Rock, Sr., and Ray Griffith as John D. Rock, Jr., who was a worthless cuss and no mistake. He refused to lead his father's Bible class in the First Ethiopian church, and spent all his time on Broadway with the chorus girls. A rip-roaring railroad comedy. Fun from start to finish.

"HER MOTHER'S SECRET"

William Fox production with Ralph Kelland and Dorothy Green. From the great stage success by Martha Woodrow. Production is the culmination of months of effort by the scores of departmental experts who have made the Fox films pre-eminent.

IT SPELLS GOOD SHOW

TONIGHT

Special feature extraordinary tonight. The Bluebird Photoplay Co. presents J. Warren Kerrigan in "THE GAY LORD WARING"

5-Parts-5

From the story by Broughton Townley with a brilliant supporting cast.

The Cast.

Lord Arthur Waring.....

J. Warren Kerrigan

Helen von Gerald.....Lois Wilson

Mark Waring.....Bertram Grassby

Countess Olga Imami.....Maude George

O'Grady, money lender.....H. Holland

Von Gerald.....Duke Worme

He waged his life against an immense sum of money and then bet with another gambler that he would win. The profligate Lord Waring, who spent money with reckless freedom, finally came to an accounting.

His choice between death and paying his bills left him only death to choose from—but fate worked wonders and the dashing courtier was able to settle in coin that accident threw at his feet.

A beautiful girl halted the spendthrift in his reckless career and the rest of the story will be told in the exciting and greatly entertaining Bluebird Photoplay, "The Gay Lord Waring."

There is a thrill almost every moment in the five acts, the complications of intrigue and collusion—all for the possession of elusive dollars—keeps the spectator tensely interested.

Thrilling rescues from a fiercely burning house; an attempted murder, staged in a blinding rainstorm; the exciting cross-country ride and collision on horseback; the wild runaway and violent death of the villain—these are some of the sensations that follow sensation throughout the five gripping acts.

"HAM-BUD COMEDY"

It's a scream.

NEW VAUDEVILLE ACT

"Malcolm and Williams," comedy singing and talking act.

Night shows 7:15, 8:30, 10:00.

A Scholar in Bed.

An amusing glimpse of the famous statesman is given by Mr. John Murray of the famous publishing house, which has issued many of Mr. Gladstone's writings and speeches. "The last time I was at Mr. Gladstone's house," says Mr. Murray, "I had breakfast early and alone, as I was going to Scotland. When I had finished I was told that Mr. Gladstone did not know that I was leaving so early, and that he wanted to have another talk with me. I went to his bedroom—a very large room with a double bed in it. Mrs. Gladstone was in her dressing room. Gladstone was dressed in a nightgown with a brown shawl round him. He was lying flat on his face, his head at the foot of the bed and his feet on the pillows. In one hand he held a cup of coffee, and there was a book in the other. I shall never forget that interview, and the comicality of the great lion head popping up as I went towards him."
